

MORRIS & C^o

Emery Walker's House

A PEAK INSIDE THE HOME THAT INSPIRED THE EMERY WALKER'S HOUSE COLLECTION FROM WORLD OF INTERIORS

We invited the interiors world's biggest publication, World of Interiors, to have a sneak peek around the house that inspired our latest collection: Emery Walker's House.

WATCH NOW

7 Hammersmith Terrace wasn't just the home of noted Typographer, book printer and friend of William Morris, Sir Emery Walker. It's one of the richest stores of original Morris & Co. and Arts & Crafts furnishings anywhere in the world. Learn about the legacy of this truly historic home and the collection it inspired.

About The Collection

Collaborator, comrade, friend and neighbour. Sir Emery Walker (1851-1933) was all these things and more to the now-iconic designer, William Morris (1834-1896). This collection centres on Walker's abode at 7 Hammersmith Terrace, marking this humble home as one of the last great vestiges of the Arts & Crafts movement. Filled with stories of craft and friendship, the collection brings to light the joy of creative relationships between people and place.

SHOP THE COLLECTION

